Our value this half term is confidence

Dear Parents and Carers,

Next Friday, 15th July is MUFTI DAY in aid of our Hawaiian Fete on Saturday 16th. Please can parents bring along a bottle of non-alcoholic or alcoholic drink at the morning drop off. Your contributions will go towards raising money for our School. Thank you.

Celebrating reading at Witley Infant School – A message from Mrs Graham, our English Lead

In September we are launching our Early Years and Key Stage One Reading Spine which is a collection of 100 best books to inspire reading.

We have chosen different books for each year group to enable our children to read the very best quality fiction and non-fiction books. Your child will bring home one of these books every week to share and the challenge is to read all of the books by the time they leave Witley C of E Infant School; 100 books in total!

We'd like your help to build our collection of the reading spine books. Look out for us at the Hawaiian Fete where you can 'buy a book' for Witley School.

Finally, we hope our parents/carers have a lovely time this evening!

Enjoy the weekend!
Mrs Szczepanski
